Vendor: IBM

Exam Code: 000-178

Exam Name: IBM WebSphere Lombardi Edition V7.2,

BPM Development

Version: DEMO

1.A developer is integrating WebSphere Lombardi Edition with an external system using a SOAP connector. What language should the developer use in the SOAP request for the integration to function properly?

A. XML

B. XSLT

C. HTML

D. XHTML

Answer: A

2.A developer builds an integration service using a Java Integration Component, and wants the result of the Java method that is invoked to be serialized and returned to the Integration service as an XML element. What must the developer do to ensure this.?

A. Enable the Translate JavaBeans check box.

B. Nest the Integration service in another service.

C. Choose the method that you want to call on the class.

D. Click the Variables tab for the Integration service to add any input variables.

Answer: A

3.A developer requires a service to query a database. The database does not have any restrictions on user/system permissions or on the operations allowed to be performed by users/systems. Which of the following operations can the developer perform on the database with the SQL Execute Statement service?

A. Read, write and update

B. Read only, not write or update

C. Read only, not write or update, and binary large objects (BLOB) data types cannot be read

D. Read, write and update, but binary large objects (BLOB) data types cannot be read, written, or updated

Answer: A